ESME Team (via AMEE ESME) <noreply@www.esmecourses.org>
To Joanne Shanks

Hi Joanne Shanks,

A new account has been created for you at 'AMEE ESME' and you have been issued with a new temporary password.

Your current login information is now:
username: jshanks@amee.org
password: pony
(you will have to change your password when you login for the first time)

To start using 'AMEE ESME', login at <https://www.esmecourses.org/login/?lang=en>

In most mail programs, this should appear as a blue link which you can just click on. If that doesn't work, then cut and paste the address into the address line at the top of your web browser window.

Cheers from the 'AMEE ESME' administrator,

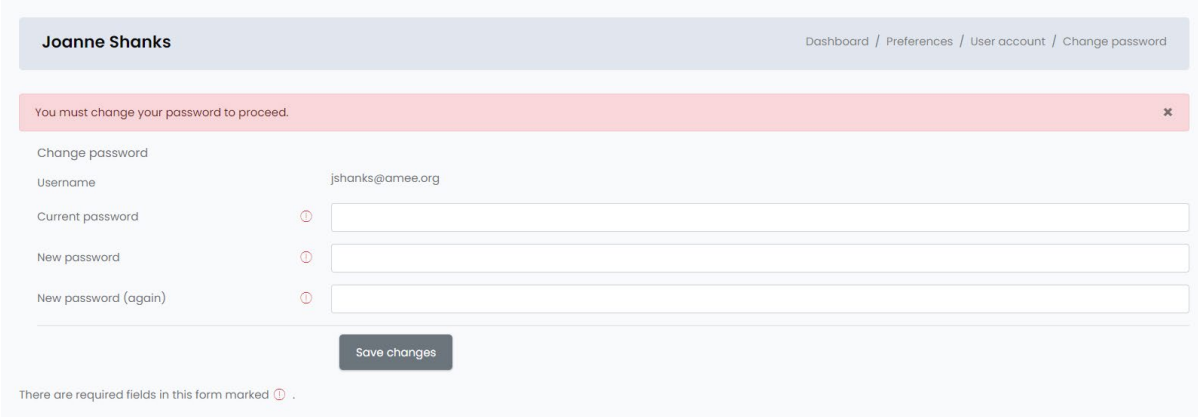

ESME Team

The image shows a screenshot of the ESME login page on the left and a 3D visualization of a globe on the right. The login page features the ESME logo at the top, followed by the heading 'Login to your account'. Below this are two input fields for 'Username' and 'Password', a 'Remember username' checkbox, and a 'Forgot Password?' link. A prominent purple 'Log in' button is centered below the form. At the bottom of the login page, there are links for 'Cookies must be enabled in your browser', 'Some courses may allow guest access' (with a 'Log in as a guest' button), and 'Log in using your account on:' (with a button for 'AMEE Central'). The 3D visualization on the right shows a globe with numerous small human figures in blue and green, representing a global community or network.

You will be prompted to change your password:

The screenshot shows a user account settings page for 'Joanne Shanks'. The breadcrumb trail is 'Dashboard / Preferences / User account / Change password'. A red notification bar at the top states 'You must change your password to proceed.' The form includes a 'Change password' section with the following fields: 'Username' (pre-filled with 'jshanks@amee.org'), 'Current password', 'New password', and 'New password (again)'. Each password field has a small circular icon to its left. A 'Save changes' button is located below the form. At the bottom, a note says 'There are required fields in this form marked ⓘ'.

When you login you will either be directed to your course page or the Dashboard.

You can find your course on the Dashboard on the left side menu, under My courses, or in the main section, under Courses. Click on your course to access it.

The screenshot shows the ESME user dashboard. The top navigation bar includes the ESME logo and a user profile icon. The left sidebar menu has options: Start, Dashboard, Site home, Calendar, Private files, My courses (highlighted), and ESME-Feed. The main content area is titled 'AMEE ESME: Dashboard' and contains several widgets: 'Communicate Messages', 'Your Profile', 'Preferences Settings', and a 'Calendar' widget. Below the dashboard is a 'Courses' section with a filter set to 'All (except hidden)' and a search box for 'Course name'. A course card is visible for 'AMEE 2021 Essential Skills in Medical Education', which is 'Published' and '0% complete'.
